Jordi Folgado has been the director of the Fundación Vicente Ferrer (FVF) since 1999, when he left a successful career in the private sector to devote his life to FVF.

He has been a supporter of the Rural Development Trust (RDT) since 1972, when he traveled to India and saw firsthand the work of his uncle and RDT's co-founder, Vicente Ferrer. Jordi is a leader in best practices for financial management and has seen the foundation's annual budget increase more than sevenfold since becoming its director.

His management model is known for its simple structures, minimal levels of hierarchy, and a focus on improving the executive skills of all of the foundation's members. During Jordi's time at the helm, the Foundation has also been nominated as a finalist for the Nobel Peace Prize. "There is no challenge we cannot achieve by working together" is his motto.
